CHAPTER _____

An act to amend Sections 2230.5, 2960.05, 3750.51, 4982.05, and 4992.31 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to healing arts.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1616, Wright. Healing arts: disciplinary actions.

Existing law provides for disciplinary action to be taken against licensed health professionals, psychologists, marriage, family and child counselors, respiratory care practitioners, and clinical social workers, including revocation, suspension, limitation, or conditioning of a license, for certain conduct. A hearing to determine whether a license shall be revoked, suspended, limited, or conditioned is initiated by the filing of an accusation in an administrative adjudication action. The accusation is required to be filed within a certain time period, with specified exceptions.

This bill would establish a different time limit for an accusation alleging sexual misconduct by the licensee. The bill would also toll the limitations period (1) where material evidence necessary for prosecuting or determining whether a disciplinary action would be appropriate is unavailable to the board due to an ongoing criminal investigation and (2) in the case of an accusation against a licensed health professional, where the alleged act or omission involves a minor, until the minor reaches the age of majority.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2230.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2230.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c), and (e), any accusation filed against a licensee pursuant to Section 11503 of the Government Code shall be filed within three years after the board, or a division thereof, discovers the act or omission alleged as the ground for disciplinary action, or within seven years after the act or omission alleged as the ground for disciplinary action occurs, whichever occurs first.

(b) An accusation filed against a licensee pursuant to Section 11503 of the Government Code alleging the procurement of a license by fraud or misrepresentation is not subject to the limitation provided for by subdivision (a).

(c) An accusation filed against a licensee pursuant to Section 11503 of the Government Code alleging unprofessional conduct based on incompetence, gross negligence, or repeated negligent acts of the licensee is not subject to the limitation provided for by subdivision (a) upon proof that the licensee intentionally concealed from discovery his or her incompetence, gross negligence, or repeated negligent acts.

(d) If an alleged act or omission involves a minor, the seven-year limitations period provided for by subdivision (a) and the 10-year limitations period provided for by subdivision (e) shall be tolled until the minor reaches the age of majority.

(e) An accusation filed against a licensee pursuant to Section 11503 of the Government Code alleging sexual misconduct shall be filed within three years after the board, or a division thereof, discovers the act or omission alleged as the ground for disciplinary action, or within 10 years after the act or omission alleged as the ground for disciplinary action occurs, whichever occurs first. This subdivision shall apply to a complaint alleging sexual misconduct received by the board on and after January 1, 2002.
